

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter One: The business of Safety (9)

Business and risk, Goals and process, Accident frequency, Government oversight

Chapter Two: Foundations (17)

Safety culture, case study, management safety policy, sample safety policy, defining the safety job, safety and operations, program essentials, cost effective safety, measuring results, budgeting for a safety program, developing workplace policies, safety and operational rules, safety program elements.

Chapter Three: The Right Employee, Everytime (39)

A role for safety in hiring, case study, hiring standards, locating prospective employees, hiring techniques, getting started with a prospect, interviewing, sample interview questions, driver leasing, fair hiring practices, off site hiring, testing programs, case study, gathering information, motor vehicle records, background and prior employment, personal references, criminal background checks, substance abuse testing programs, placement, case study

Chapter Four: Retaining Quality Employees (71)

An emphasis on quality, keys to retaining drivers, techniques for driver retention

Chapter Five: Training Basics (77)

Training Basics, Case study, The Ability to Learn, Principles of learning, Getting Started- teaching, The Four Step approach, Tools to Enhance Training

Chapter Six: The Driver Training Process (87)

Training Modes, Commentary Driving, Safety Meetings, Alternative Message Delivery, Driving Simulators, Campaigns, Case Study, Training Records, Resources

Chapter Seven: The Message: What Drivers Must Know (97)

Orientation Training Topics, Basic training Topics, Safe Driving Training Topics, Safety Meeting Topics, Remedial training, Regulatory Training Topics, Case Study, Principles of Safe Driving, Basic Safe Driving Strategy, Reacting to Risks, Hazards Along the Way, Personal safety and Security, Case Study, Seeing for Safety, Speed and Stopping, Intersection Safety, Distraction, Case Study, Right Turn Safety, Left Turn Safety, Construction Zone Safety, Safe Merging, Safe Winter Driving, Preventing Rear End Collisions, Preventing Side Swipe Collisions, Aggressive Driving, Fatigued Driving, The Moth Effect.

Chapter Eight: The Art and Science of Supervision (125)

Essential Skills, Employee Leadership, Employee Motivation, Efforts and Actions that Motivate, Attitudes and their Modification, Essentials of Communication

Chapter Nine: Succeeding in Supervision (139)

Traditional supervisory techniques, contemporary methods for supervision, electronic tools for safety, a desirable place to work, managing work assignments, skill in delegating, recordkeeping, organized labor factors, owner operator management, recognition programs, fuel incentive program, discipline- the remedial program, progressive discipline, risks in the progressive system, tips for improving supervisory skills.

Chapter Ten: Supervisory Laws, Rules and Regulations (163)

Topics for Company Rules, Legal limits, Equal Employment Opportunity, The Americans with Disabilities Act, the Family Medical Leave Act, Worker Compensation, Harassment.

Chapter Eleven: Productive Maintenance (169)

Vehicle safety Foundations, Case Study, Maintenance Goals, Case Study, The Safest Vehicle Possible, Planned Maintenance, Safe Maintenance Practices, Driver Vehicle Inspections, Measuring Shop Effectiveness

Chapter Twelve: Accidents: Cause and Effect (181)

Case study, crash causation, the National Transportation Safety Board, case study, Heinrich and the behavioral approach, safety data, accident records, contribution and preventability, crash causation data, bus crash causation study, loss causes, case study, countermeasure programs.

Chapter Thirteen: Accident Management (205)

Responding, driver at the scene, driver reports

Chapter Fourteen: Accident and Injury Investigation (211)

In office investigation, at the scene, photographs at the scene, technical photography, interviews, measuring and diagramming, technical accident investigation, evidence, investigating employee injuries, using a statistical approach, loss count analysis, exposure to loss, understanding standard deviation

Chapter Fifteen: Passenger Transport (227)

Multiple modes, standards of practice, the duty to the passenger, in case of breakdown, Good Samaritan laws, regulatory mandates

Chapter Sixteen: Claims and Litigation Management (239)

Litigation, the system of torts, a case study, the process of litigation

Chapter 17: Risk Transfer and Insurance (245)

An insurance primer, insurance principles, insurance and alternatives, financial stability, insurance purchasing management, insurer claims handling, worker compensation claims management

Chapter 18: Regulations: Motor Carrier Safety (255)

Registration, driver qualification, contents of a driver qualification file, driver history investigations, the physical exam, special notes on physical qualification, background checks, substance abuse procedures and compliance, substance abuse testing programs, independent procedures, special conditions: hours of service, maintenance requirements, vehicle operators, hours of service rules, hours of service compliance, log audit inspector standards, brake technician certification, driver inspections, daily condition reports, maintenance records, insurance documents, hazardous materials, documents for D.O.T. compliance.

Chapter 19: The Enforcement Process (289)

Enforcement activity, state enforcement roadside inspections, safety ratings, regulatory agencies and references

Chapter 20: Risk Management Mandates (295)

Environmental protections, employee safety and health, O.S.H.A. and drivers, O.S.H.A. injury and recordkeeping, security, workplace violence, security plans, fire safety and security

Quick index to inserts (315)